

PENDANT

Lainey Stem Pendant

Clean lines and a slender stem define the Lainey Stem Pendant, a versatile drop light with a simple, modern profile that suits a range of rooms. A single medium-base A19 socket glows softly from below — perfect over a kitchen island, entry, or reading nook — and the rigid stem holds it at a fixed, tidy height. Hung solo or in a row, its clear glass over a black frame turns the ceiling into a quiet focal point without overwhelming the space around it.
