

WALL SCONCE

Laurel Wall Sconce

A single glass shade gives the Laurel Wall Sconce a slender, understated silhouette built to flank a bathroom mirror. Warm light spills softly downward across the vanity, easing everyday grooming without glare or harsh shadows. Mount it alone beside a powder-room mirror for a subtle touch of light, or hang a matching pair to frame a wider vanity symmetrically. Finished to coordinate with the rest of the Laurel collection, it's a quiet, polished accent at eye level.
